

Jim Ohm – Editor

Award-winning editor Jim Ohm has helped to create some of John Rubin Productions' finest works. Having edited over twelve hours worth of programming for JRP, Jim's personal and creative style has lent itself well to JRP's credo of producing innovative and entertaining documentary films.

From Destination Space, a two-hour film for National Geographic, to the Peabody Award winning film Ape Genius, produced for PBS, Jim will immerse himself in the subject matter to create a program which is uniquely John Rubin Productions!
